"MRS. AMERICA" CONTEST BEING CONDUCTED HERE

The housewives of Adams County will have their first opportunity to compete in the "Mrs. America" contest this year, according to an announcement by Julian N. Estep, manager of the Manufacturers Light and Heat Co.

The seventeenth annual "Mrs. America" contest is being sponsored by the American Gas Association. The local gas company is in charge of the contest within the area which it serves, all of Adams County except the York Springs section, and portions of Franklin County.

"We are going to break this contest down to the back-yard level this year," Estep said. "We are going to hold preliminaries in every locality which we serve, and then an area-wide contest in Gettysburg. The winner here will be entered in the Central Pennsylvania contest, and that winner will go to the 'Mrs. Pennsylvania' contest."

First Contest Here
"The final step is the 'Mrs. America' contest, at which 'Mrs. Pennsylvania' will be an entrant. To the best of my knowledge, this is the first time an Adams County homemaker has had an opportunity to become 'Mrs. America.'"

DECLARES ONLY PURPOSE OF ART IS ENJOYMENT

Dr. Frederic Prokosh, author and lecturer, declared that the only purpose of art is enjoyment, that "it has no moral value and no practical or useful purpose."

He spoke on "The Meaning of Art" in a Gettysburg College lecture, Friday evening in the SCA Building.

"The only value of art is the pleasure it gives," he said. "You are not a better man for it. There is too much of drudgery in the supposed enjoyment of art. There is too much of a feeling that it is a civic responsibility, or that it has some lesson to teach. In Europe, on the other hand, the people have learned to try to appreciate art for itself."

Dr. Prokosh was forced to defend this position from many questioners. He did so without pause, saying "I've known of many great artists who were absolutely wicked by any standard, and many people who read great books are just as immoral afterwards as before."

"Four Characteristics"

He listed four characteristics of great art, whether it be literature, music, or the visual arts. "First, it must have an individual stamp (Continued On Page 7)

Boy, 6, Has Meningitis

Ronald E. Newman, 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Newman, Baltimore Pike, is a patient at the Warner Hospital suffering from an attack of spinal meningitis, it was learned today. He has been in the hospital since 11 o'clock Tuesday evening.

Dr. James H. Allison, the youth's attending physician, said this morning that the boy's condition had been serious but that he has shown some signs of improvement and that he is hopeful for his recovery. He is isolated at the hospital where he is expected to remain for ten days or two weeks. The family will be quarantined for 14 days.

The boy was taken ill Sunday and when he did not improve he was removed to the hospital where his spine was tapped which revealed the illness.

Ronald and his brother James, 8, attended Higo Street School here. Mr. Newman is employed at the Gettysburg Autoparts, York St.

Funeral services for Claude M. Sherman, 71, 239 Highland Ave., Littlestown, who died on Friday at 12:35 p.m. at the Warner Hospital, where he had been a patient since January 24, will be held on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Little's Funeral Home, Littlestown. The Rev. R. R. Gresh, pastor of St. James' Lutheran Church, will officiate. Interment will be made in Grace Lutheran Cemetery, Two Taverns. Friends may call at the funeral home on Sunday evening.

Mr. Sherman was a St. James Lutheran Church and also a member of Sylvania Lodge No. 613, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Littlestown.

MRS. H. T. BREAM CHAIRMAN FOR WELFARE FORUM

Mrs. Henry T. Bream, Fairfield Road, has been appointed chairman of Region 8, Pennsylvania Welfare Forum, Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, Harrisburg, president of the Forum, announced today. She succeeds Henry Phelps. Mrs. Bream recently attended a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Region at Harrisburg. Today she announced that the next annual Region 8 meeting will be held at Gettysburg College, sometime in April.

At a recent meeting of the statewide Executive Board, of which Mrs. Bream is a member, it was announced that the annual meeting of the Forum will be held in Pittsburgh, March 23, 24 and 25. All members of the Forum and others interested are urged to attend.

Individuals and organizations are eligible to join the Forum and Mrs. Bream announced that a membership campaign will be launched in the early future. Mrs. Marion L. Sheridan, of Cumberland County, is chairman of that committee. Other Region 8 officers are:

Miss Virginia Blick, York, is secretary; Miss Caroline Burgess, Harrisburg, is vice chairman; Jack Bierstein, Harrisburg, is chairman of the Nominating Committee and Mrs. Lorna Sylvester, Harrisburg, is program chairman; Henry Phelps is the editorial representative on the Welfare magazine.

Mrs. Bream said she will announce the Regional meeting program in the early future.

GUEST PREACHER

The Rev. Dr. Carl C. Rasmussen, professor of systematic theology at the Lutheran Seminary, will be the guest preacher for the preaching mission at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Western Pike, Hagerstown, which will begin Monday evening and continue through next Friday.

Two Red MIGs Shot Down In Flight Over Yellow Sea

TOKYO (AP)—American F86 Sabrejets shot down two of eight attacking Communist MIG swept-wing jet fighters today in the biggest air battle since the end of the Korean War in July, 1953.

The U.S. Air Force, in a terse announcement, reported the Russian-built fighters attacked a U.S. RB45 reconnaissance bomber and its covering flight of Sabres over the Yellow Sea between Korea and Red China.

The announcement, issued by Gen. Earle E. Partridge, Far East Air Forces commander, did not identify by nationality the Red jets. Presumably they were Chinese Communists.

There was no word on possible American injuries in the battle, or on the exact location, but the Air Force said no U.S. planes were lost.

The Air Force said the Communist jets "attacked over international waters west of Korea this afternoon."

"The other six attackers returned to Communist territory," (presumably Red China) said the terse announcement.

The Air Force said the RB45 was "on a reconnaissance mission over the Yellow Sea when the four-engined jet bomber was attacked by four Russian-built MIG15s. At the same time four other MIGs attacked the escorting jet fighters flying top cover."

NEW ASSISTANT FARM AGENT IS ASSIGNED HERE

Appointment of a second assistant county farm agent for Adams County was announced today.

John D. Naugle, Hooversville, Somerset County, has been named as a new member of the Adams County Agricultural Extension Association staff and began his duties this week.

JOHN D. NAUGLE

County Agent Frank S. Zettie said. Born and reared on a dairy farm in Somerset County, the new assistant county agent won the Keystone Farmer degree in 1944 for his outstanding work in vocational agriculture, carrying mostly projects in dairy work. He was also a 4-H club member, and in that organization (Continued On Page 4)

COUNTY TO RECEIVE SIX CROP AWARDS

A. Irvin Hostetter, Hanover R. 4, is scheduled to receive two awards at the annual Adams County Crops and Soils Day Friday—and his son will make the presentations.

Oscar Hostetter, Thomasville farmer and a director of the Pennsylvania Crop Improvement Association, is to make the presentation of six awards to Adams County winners in the Pennsylvania Corn Club and Grasslands competitions.

Hostetter's father won prizes in both competitions. So also did Mrs. Rose Murren, Hanover R. 4, the first woman in the state to win the Master Farmer award a number of years ago. Charles Klingner, New Oxford R. 2, was the other county to win a grasslands award and Ben Hufnagel, Hanover R. 4, is the other countyman who will receive a corn club prize.

Series Of Meetings

The Crops and Soils Day program, one of a number of sessions scheduled for next week, will be held at the Court House here starting at 10 o'clock Friday morning with a (Continued On Page 8)

POSTPONE RIDE AGAIN

Cold weather and slippery roads have brought another postponement in the scheduled Sunday afternoon ride for the members of the Gettysburg Riding Club from the Barton Ford farm between Fairfield and Orrtanna. The ride was scheduled first for January 30, then postponed until February 6 and now has been put off until February 13.

2nd Mission Study Session On Sunday

Dr. and Mrs. L. Eugene L. Ischick, Lutheran missionaries to India, will present the second of a series of three lessons for a study group in the chapel of St. James Lutheran Church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Dr. Ischick will speak on "The Church in Southern India."

All members of the congregation, both men and women, have been invited to attend.

JAILED FIVE DAYS

John Hoffman, R. 2, has been sentenced to five days in the county jail in default of a fine by Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore, for disorderly conduct. He was arrested about 11 o'clock Friday evening by borough police and lodged in the jail until his hearing this morning.

Dean Asquith New President Of County Library Board

Dean Asquith, Biglerville, was elected president of the board of directors of the Adams County Free Library Association at the board's February meeting Friday evening at the main library on E. High St.

Asquith, who is associate professor of economic entomology at the Pennsylvania State University research laboratory at Araditsville, succeeds William M. Lott, Gardner R. D., in the office. Lott served two years as president as he concluded eight years of service as a member of the library board.

Lott Is Honored

L. S. Long, Gettysburg R. D., was elected treasurer for another term and Mrs. Mary S. Wilson, the librarian, was continued as secretary to the board. All of the elections were without contest. The retiring president, Mr. Lott, presided during the election and continued to occupy the chair for the remainder of the meeting in the absence of both Messrs. Asquith and Darrah. Both were occupied for the evening with the adult education program at Gettysburg College.

Lott was voted an honorary membership on the board, an honor given previously only to Mrs. E. S. Lewars when she retired from the board several years ago.

The board opened new bids on revised specifications for the construction of a garage and stockroom addition at the main library. The bids were turned over to the Property Committee for study with every effort to be made to expedite the construction work. The extra building is needed to house the new bookmobile and to furnish extra workspace and book storage space for the growing book collection at the library.

Elect New Member

The directors elected Mrs. Frank Myers of near East Berlin as a member of the board from that section of the county. Her election is for one year, until the next annual meeting of the library association.

The gift of a gateleg table and a painting by the late Prof. Warren Robinson was announced by Mrs. (Continued On Page 3)

Here And There News Collected At Random

We salute the Boy Scouts of America on its 45th birthday, to be observed during Boy Scout Week, February 6 to 12.

Since its founding in 1910 the organization has enriched the lives of over 22,750,000 boys and adult leaders. Truly Scouting represents a living cross section of American life.

Boys of every race, religion and economic background are attracted to Scouting. Today we find 2,700,000 boys in its ranks. Add to that impressive figure the 960,000 adults of good character who give generously of their time and talents to serve as leaders of units, Merit Badge Counselors and in many other capacities. There is hardly an American family that has not felt its influence.

Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, the Chief Scout Executive, a leader in the organization since 1913, feels that it is of vital importance to train the boys of today to be ready for positions of leadership as they grow to manhood.

Mrs. G. W. Wampler Dies Friday At 79

Mrs. Barbara Ellen Wampler, 79, widow of George William Wampler, died Friday evening about 5 o'clock at her home in Straban Twp., Gettysburg R. 4. Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, said death was due to infirmities.

Mrs. Wampler was born in Adams County and was a daughter of the late George and Rachael Catherine (Baldin) Funt and lived all her life in this county. Her husband died March 4, 1948.

Surviving are two children: Mrs. Harold Rexroth, Biglerville, and Benjamin, at home; three grandchildren; a great grandchild; a sister, Mrs. James Martin, Aspers R. D., and two brothers, Frank Funt, Aspers R. D., and John Funt, Gettysburg R. D.

Funeral services at the Bender Funeral Home Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Rev. Amos W. Myers, Mummaburg, officiating. Interment at Mummaburg. Friends may visit the funeral home Monday evening after 7 o'clock.

SCOUT PROGRAM

The Gettysburg Lions will observe Boy Scout Week Monday evening at 6 o'clock at their weekly dinner session at the Shepherd House. Charles Harris, scout field executive for the York-Adams area, and a group of scouters will attend and will provide the program.

JOSEPH KEBIL AND MISS POIST ARE WED TODAY

In a setting of white pompons and gladioli, Miss Patricia Ann Poist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis X. Poist, 445 High St., Hanover, became the bride of Joseph A. Kebil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Kebil, S. Queen St., Littlestown, this morning at 8 o'clock in St. Vincent's Catholic Church, Hanover. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph G. Gotwalt before the nuptial mass.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz-length gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over bridal satin fashioned with a fitted bodice having a Queen Ann collar and long sleeves of lace tapering to points over the hands. A finger-tip veil was attached to a crown of seed pearls. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom. She carried a white prayer book topped with camellias and lilies of the valley.

GARFINKLE IS NEW PRESIDENT

Edward Stine was chosen as vice president and Paul G. Pensinger was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Final arrangements were announced for the annual Ladies' Night dinner meeting to be held Friday, March 4, at Bankert's Restaurant.

The society review plans for the opening March 18 of the annual photographic exhibit at the Gettysburg National Bank. March 7 has been announced as the deadline for show entries.

Eleven prints were entered in the monthly picture display and on the vote of the members David Garfinkle was awarded first place. A print made by Edward Stine, took second honors; Lawrence Bottiger, third, and Robert Ditchburn, fourth. Twelve members attended.

Rev. Galambos To Address Young Folk

An address by the Rev. Gideon Galambos, Czech native who has been pastor of the Emmitsburg-Piney Creek - Taneytown Presbyterian charge for the last two years, will bring to a close the community observance of Youth Week here on Sunday evening.

The Rev. Mr. Galambos will speak at 7:30 o'clock in St. James Lutheran Church at a service which will follow a box lunch supper for young people of the community at the same church at 6 o'clock.

The Youth Week events began last Sunday with an inter-church visitation, continued Wednesday with a panel discussion at the Methodist Church and were in full swing this afternoon with a roller skating party at Littlestown. There will be a Senior High social affair this evening at the Reformed Church while Junior High young people will gather at the Presbyterian Church.

Special Services Held

Local societies held special services on Denominational Day last Sunday. A youth program was held in Chestnut Grove Lutheran Church with Charles Gentzler as speaker.

The first Christian Endeavor Society was organized by the late Dr. Francis E. Clark in Portland, Me., on February 2, 1891. From this group of 57 members, the Christian Endeavor idea swiftly spread around the world.

Dr. Daniel A. Poling is president of the World's CE Union and is acting president of the International Society which includes societies in churches in North America.

1st Heart Program On Sunday Evening

Non-technical terms will be used Sunday evening in a lecture here by Dr. William Jeffers, head of the hypertension clinic of the University of Pennsylvania Medical School, to describe diseases of the heart and circulatory system.

Dr. Jeffers will speak at 8:15 p.m. in the Moose home in the first of a series of annual program by the Adams County Heart Association on "You and Your Heart."

The purpose is to inform the public about heart disease. There will be a half hour of piano music by Mrs. Clarence Bartholomew before the program begins. A feature of the affair will be two exhibits of the Pennsylvania Heart Association. One will be a "heart ailment quiz board" and the other is titled "The Animated Heart."

AUTO OWNERS GIVE $3,434.11 TO POLIO FUND

Adams County motorists donated more than $100 a day during the week to bring the total of their contributions to the March of Dimes to $3,434.21—an amount higher than the entire total of $3,400 contributed by the auto owners last year during the annual campaign of the Adams County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Mrs. Joseph Codori, chairman of the fund drive, said today, "The response by the motorists this year is greater than expected. Each year we send to the 12,000 car owners in the county a request for a contribution. There is no personal solicitation. The donations are made by persons interested enough in the fight against polio to write out a check and mail it in. Everyone of those who donated is to be praised for the money goes not only to help countyans who are suffering from polio, but also to help in the fight to stamp out polio entirely. This year we should know the results on the Salk vaccine and it appears very possible that through the generosity of the general public (Continued On Page 2)

Mr. And Mrs. J. H. Eck Of Bonneauville Wed 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Eck of Bonneauville, Pa., celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary today.

MR. AND MRS. J. H. ECK

A mass this morning in St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Bonneauville, and a dinner and "open house" Sunday, will mark the observance of the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. James Henry Eck, of near Bonneauville.

Rev. Fr. Leo J. Krichen, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, was the celebrant at the high mass this morning at 9 o'clock. Sunday the immediate family will dine at Weaver's Restaurant and then an "open house" will be held at the Catholic War Veterans home at Bonneauville until 6 o'clock Sunday evening.

Mr. Eck, a son of the late Daniel Eck and Sarah Alice Beard, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beard, all of Fairfield, were married February 7, 1905, in St. An-

CIRCULATION AT LIBRARY SHOWS 50 PCT. JUMP

Circulation figures for the Adams County Free Library made such a big jump in January that even the board of directors, accustomed as they are to seeing an increase for each report period, was amazed.

The report of Mrs. Mary S. Wilson, county librarian, showed there were 24,500 books and magazine loans last month by the library with the new bookmobile accounting for 20,765 of that total. In January of last year the total was 16,492. The January total is a new high for any month in the library's history.

Wondering how much longer the circulation figure can keep growing, board members suggested several reasons for the increase.

First, they said, the new bookmobile, donated by the Musselman Foundation last year, makes it possible to carry books to schools throughout the county. Previously, Mrs. Wilson said, one book could be left for three children but now one book for two children in every room can be delivered.

Serving 40 Pct. More Pupils
Second, the directors found that reading at high school levels, particularly at Fairfield, is increasing. Teacher interest and cooperation is an important element there but the board suspects that reading habits formed through the last nine years of county library service are bearing fruit.

Mrs. Wilson pointed out, too, that the library is serving 40 per cent more school children than when it started bookmobile service nine years ago.

Loans at the main library also showed a gain last month over the same month last year. The totals were 2,748 last month and 2,132 last year.

It was pointed out also that new book purchases which last year could go above budget limits by reason of special gifts to the book fund helped circulation figures. More than $5,000 was spent on new books last year. There is only $3,000 in this year's budget for the same purpose.

FR. H. J. HOWARTH DIES ON FRIDAY

Rev. Fr. Henry J. Howarth, 82, pastor emeritus of St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church, York, died Friday at 11:50 a.m. at St. Joseph's Hospital, Lancaster, where he had been a patient for more than a year.

Born in Philadelphia on December 8, 1872, he received a bachelor's degree from St. Laurent College, Montreal, Canada, and after graduation taught Greek, Latin and English there for eight years.

When he left the college in 1905 to enter Mt. St. Mary's Seminary, Emmitsburg, he was vice president of St. Laurent.

Father Howarth was ordained at Mt. St. Mary's on June 15, 1909. He served assistant pastorships at St. Ignatius Church, Centerville; Sacred Heart Church, Conowingo; St. Joseph's Church, Locust Gap; St. Joseph's Church, Locust Grove; St. Patrick's Cathedral, Harrisburg; Our Lady of Refuge Church, Doylestown; a mission at Wallontville; Sacred Heart Church, Lewistown; and St. Edward's Church, Shamokin, before receiving his first full pastorship at St. Rose.

Father Howarth's only survivor is a sister, Sister Margaret Mary, a cloister nun of the Good Shepherd Sisters, Portland, Ore.

Translation of his body to St. Rose of Lima Church, York, will take place Monday at 4 p.m. Recitation of the divine office of the dead will follow. The body will lie in state before the altar overnight for viewing until the solemn requiem mass Tuesday at 8 a.m.

OFFER PORK IN ABUNDANCE AT MARKET TODAY

Pork was in abundance at the Farmers Market today, but otherwise the weekly mart showed a normal midwinter appearance. Prices remained "about the same."

Eggs continued at the low of 45 cents a dozen for large, a price that has been in effect for about three weeks and one of the lowest prices in a year.

Pork Offerings

Pork offerings included sausage at 55 cents a pound; bacon, 50 cents a pound; scrapple, 25 to 30 cents a pound; ribs, 45 cents a pound; back-bone, 50 cents a pound; shoulder, 60 to 65 cents a pound; ham, $1 a pound; pudding, 40 cents a pound and hog maws, 60 cents apiece. Lard continued at 22 cents a pound.

Apples continued at a top of $2.50 a bushel; chicken continued to vary from 45 cents a pound up to 75 cents a pound for choice cuts. Capons were 60 cents a pound.

Onions sold for 15 cents a box, $2 a bushel; apple snitz, 30 cents a quart box; potatoes, 25 cents a quarter peck, 45 cents a half peck; apple butter, 45 cents a jar; potato salad, 25 cents a pint; cottage cheese, 20 cents a pint; jellies, 20 to 25 cents a jar; mixed pickle, 25 cents a jar; cookies, 25 cents a dozen; cup cheese, 30 cents a pint.

3 Ousted GOP Officials May Turn To Court

HARRISBURG (AP)—Three Republican state officials, holdovers from the Fine administration, today may take court action against an order from Gov. George M. Leader dismissing them from their posts effective Monday at noon.

Leader dispatched the dismissal letters by special messenger yesterday to six Republican officeholders. He named successors to the GOP-held posts just after his inauguration Jan. 18.

The letters went to Chairman Frederick T. Gelder and David R. Perry, of the State Liquor Control Board; Chairman Raymond A. Cox and Louis J. Conley, of the Pennsylvania Securities Commission; Chairman Leo G. Knoll, of the State Workmen's Compensation Board, and Malcolm B. Petrkin, a member of the State Labor Relations Board.

Petrkin, Knoll and Cox indicated they may go to the courts to hold their positions until their successors are "appointed and qualified." Petrkin even threatened State Supreme court action.

Gelder and Perry indicated compliance with the order while Conley, just discharged from a hospital after a two-week illness, said he would come to Harrisburg Monday "to find out what this all about."

COMMONWEALTH HEADS CONFER ON PEACE MOVES

By EDWIN SHANKE

LONDON (AP)—The British Commonwealth premiers embarked today on a weekend of behind the scenes moves to try to avert the growing danger of war over Formosa.

The premiers planned private huddles as Britain's top diplomats took soundings in Moscow and Washington on possible new steps following the shock of Red China's boycott of the proposed Security Council cease-fire talks.

Sir William Hayter, Britain's ambassador to Russia and India's charge d'affaires in Moscow, P.N. Kaul, saw Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov late yesterday. Britain also was in close touch with the U. S. State Department.

The nine Commonwealth leaders who have been conferring the past five days on ways of easing world tension—especially in the Far East—went into recess for the weekend after announcing they would take up the Formosa crisis again Monday.

Turn To Secrecy

Diplomatic informants said the premiers, convinced there was no hope of making headway toward a cease-fire through the U. N., are turning to secret diplomacy.

Their activity reportedly centered around India's Prime Minister Nehru because of his close contacts with Peiping and the fact he is the leading Asian exponent of neutralist policy in the East-West cold war.

For the present there appeared little warmth, either among British officials or within the Commonwealth delegations, toward suggestions for international meetings on Formosa outside the U. N. The United States has advised Britain that it opposes any attempt to call such a conference.

EX-LIBRARIAN EXPIRES TODAY

Miss Constance E. Kerschner, 79, a resident of Emmitsburg since 1942 when she retired as a librarian at the Congressional Library, died this morning at 6:10 o'clock at the Warner Hospital here.

Miss Kerschner, who resided with a brother, Robert L. Kerschner, in Emmitsburg, suffered a cerebral hemorrhage January 18, at her home. She apparently was descending a flight of stairs at the time and fell to the floor. She was found by a niece and removed to the hospital here where she had been unconscious since that time.

A native of Mercersburg, she was a daughter of the late Jacob B. and Anna (Mottier) Kerschner. She had served as a librarian at the American University at Washington for some time before joining the staff of the Congressional Library.

Surviving are two brothers, Robert L., with whom she resided, and Edward Kerschner, Norris-town. In addition a number of nieces and nephews survive.

Funeral arrangements, under direction of M. O. Creager and Son, Thurmont, are incomplete.

ANGRY TEACHER RAPS CATHOLICS

AMSTERDAM, N.Y. (AP)—The national commander of the American Legion says that "perhaps" the Legion's magazine should not have printed "such a controversial letter" as one from an unemployed college instructor attacking Roman Catholics.

Seaborn P. Collins said yesterday that the letter from Kenneth F. Klinkert of Menomonee Falls, Wis., published two weeks ago "certainly does not express the opinion of the Legion magazine or of the Legion."

In the letter Klinkert maintained that the ideals of the Legion and the Roman Catholic Church did not coincide and said he felt that legionnaires who were Catholics should resign from the veterans' group or give up their religion.

Klinkert, 36, who declared himself a Unitarian, said that officials at Armstrong Junior College in Savannah, Ga., had refused to rehire him "because of Catholic pressure brought to bear on me."

PREDICT COLD, WET WEEKEND

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A cold and wet weekend appeared in prospect for wide areas of the country today in the wake of one of the season's biggest snow storms in the midcontinent.

The snowfall which blanketed the Plains and North Central regions diminished during the night as it moved eastward. But more snow, rain or sleet was predicted for the Midwest and East over the weekend.

DEER KILL WAS LOWER IN 1954

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania hunters killed 40,915 deer during the 1954 season or almost 13,000 less than the number killed in 1953.

The Pennsylvania Game Commission said yesterday that last year's total compared with 53,636 deer killed in 1953. The Commission said the higher 1953 kill was recorded because there was no special antlerless deer season last year.

The total deer kill included animals taken during the bow and arrow season in 1954 when archers bagged 55 deer. In 1953, 84 animals were killed by bow and arrow.

The breakdown of kills of other popular game (1954 figure first, 1953 figure second) 243: Bear—403-303; wild turkey—160,000-14,604; rabbits—1,537,722-1,398,132; squirrels—721,933-771,722; raccoons—101,980-129,258; ringneck pheasant—428,149-452,915; wild waterfowl—53,791-53,995; woodchucks—329,656-332,167.

He is a son of John M. Roddy, Emmitsburg, and the late Laura Orndorff Roddy.

"MRS. AMERICA"

from the gas company or from any of the local gas appliance dealers. March 1 is the deadline for entries. "The judging will be based principally upon a woman's abilities as a homemaker," Estep explained. "Before she can enter one of our preliminaries, each applicant will be interviewed at her home, and her home examined by one of our contest personnel. At the local preliminary, a bake-off will be held, and the contestants interviewed by the judges. Cooking ability is most important, but an attractive appearance also counts."

Married Women Eligible
All married women over the age of 21 are eligible.

The local preliminaries will be held in March. All state finalists, including "Mrs. Pennsylvania," will receive an expense-paid trip to the national contest in Florida, for herself and her husband. The national winner will receive over $15,000 in prizes and a two-week vacation in Florida.

FEAR LOSS TO WINTER WHEAT

HARRISBURG (P) — State farm experts feared today that near zero temperatures throughout Pennsylvania the past week may have seriously damaged the winter wheat crops in Southeastern counties.

Elsewhere in the commonwealth, winter wheat crops, planted in the fall and harvested in early summer, have been protected from the freezing weather by a heavy blanket of snow.

But D. O. Boester, chief statistician of the State Agriculture Department, said he was unable to determine how extensive it is until the crop begins to grow this spring.

Snow in the southeast counties, Boester said, had been blown from fields by strong winds, leaving seeds lying close to the surface in danger.

PLAN NEW SCHOOL

PHILADELPHIA (P) — The Philadelphia Catholic Archdiocese will construct a new diocesan high school in Conshohocken replacing St. Matthew's High School.

A spokesman for Archbishop John F. O'Hara announced the new building will occupy a 20-acre tract of land on 14th st., north of Fayette.

Plans for the school have been prepared by Noel and Swinburne, architects. Joseph E. Heffernan and Son, contractors, will do the construction. The school name will not be changed.

ACCORDING TO PLAN

BOISE, Idaho (P) — An unscheduled touch of realism was added to a civil defense test.

The script said three Snake River bridges were out, wrecked by imaginary bombs. But on the day of the test, one of the bridges really was knocked out. There was nothing imaginary about the truck that broke through it.

Littlestown MASONS PLAN ANNUAL DINNER NEXT FRIDAY

The 49th annual banquet for the Masons of Littlestown, Two Taverns, Silver Run, Union Mills and vicinity and their guests will be held on Friday, February 11, 6:45 p.m., in the social hall of Redeemer's Reformed Church, Littlestown. The banquet will be served by the Ladies Aid Society of Redeemer's Church.

New Destroyer Launched Today

BATH, Maine (P) — The USS Forrest P. Sherman, first in a new line of all-purpose Navy destroyers, slides down the ways at the Bath Iron Works today.

Present plans call for building 10 more Sherman-type destroyers, five here and five at the Bethlehem Steel Corp.'s Fore River Shipyard in Quincy, Mass.

The Sherman will carry the latest in rapid-fire, radar-controlled 5-inch and 3-inch guns, homing torpedoes and antisubmarine weapons.

Her top speed is a secret but she is expected to better the present destroyer maximum of 35 knots.

BULLET FROSH LOSE 80-67 TO STEVENS TRADE

Gettysburg College's freshmen dribblers trailed most of the way as they bowed to Stevens Trade School 80-67 at Lancaster Friday evening.

The loss was the fourth straight for Coach Johnny Yovicsin's team which won its season opener for the lone victory.

The Bullets outscored their rivals from the floor 29-27 but lost out at the foul line where they landed nine of 18 attempts while the Tradesmen converted 26 of 36.

Frank Capitani and Charley Landis led the yearlings with 20 and 16 tallies, respectively. The winners were sparked by George and Nafe who rimmed 25 and 20.

Next Wednesday evening the freshmen meet the Franklin and Marshall frosh in a preliminary game here to the varsity contest.

Miss Rawlings Is Spectrum Queen

MISS RAWLINGS

Miss Helen Rawlings, Limrik, Pa., a Senior at Gettysburg College, was crowned as the "Spectrum Queen" to "reign" over the Junior-Senior Prom Weekend at the dance held Friday night by the college students at Eddie Plank Memorial Gymnasium.

Miss Rawlings was selected from a number of candidates by Ed Sullivan, Broadway columnist and master of ceremonies on the "Toast of the Town" telecast.

Fred Filbert, also a Senior at the local school, was chosen by campus vote to place the crown on the new queen.

Ralph Materie's orchestra provided the music for the dance on the theme "Cupid's Capers" Friday night. Tonight Mike Pedicin's orchestra will play for the second in the series of dances which open the second semester social season at the college.

ARREST SUSPECT

PHILADELPHIA (P) — A 23-year-old man was held in $5,000 bail today on charges of sending threatening letters to Heavyweight Champion Rocky Marciano.

FBI agents arrested John J. Hanigan of suburban Glenolden yesterday and charged he sent three letters to Marciano threatening his wife and child with bodily harm unless he lost his title defense bout last June 17 to Ezzard Charles.

U. S. Commissioner Henry P. Carr ordered Hannigan held for a further hearing Monday.

TAIPEH, Formosa (P) — Maj. Gen. William C. Chase said today American military observers and advisers had returned to the Communist-manned Tachens after having just recently left those offshore islands.

Chase, head of the Military Assistance and Advisory Group, did not indicate whether this meant that an evacuation of the two islands was imminent. He said at a news conference only that the group would "aid and advise at the command level" in any operation "that might come up."

Scouting's purpose, stated in the Federal Charter granted by Congress in 1916, is to promote the "ability of boys to do things for themselves and to others, to train them in Scoutcraft, and to teach them patriotism, courage, self-reliance and kindred virtues."

Every member of the nation's 93,000 Scouting units is indeed "having some kind of experience that is meeting to his equipment to meet the problems of adult life."

It is that training that we heartily endorse on this noteworthy birthday.

LAWSON'S HOSPITALIZED

KINGSFORD, Tenn. (P) — Holston Valley Community Hospital was teeming with Lawsons recently. At one time, there were 14 persons by that name. Two of them, in the maternity ward to add a couple of more Lawsons, both were named Dorothy Marie. Nurses solved that one by calling them by their husbands' first names: George Washington and Andrew Jackson Lawson.

EXPENSIVE BOUNCE

EAST ORANGE, N. J. (P) — Paying traffic fines with rubber checks can be more expensive than double parking. Magistrate Luke M. McKinney fined an offender $25 because his $4 check bounced.

The judge got tough when the number of bad checks coming in the mail with traffic tickets increased to an average of 10 a month.

Names Property Committee

The monthly operating statement revealed that the library already has received $600 from county school districts. The report showed $200 each from the Conewago Joint School System, the Lower Adams Joint School System and from the Upper Adams School Board. Largest item in the list of receipts for the month was $700 from the Community Chest. Bills for the month totaling $1,155 were ordered paid.

Members of the new Property Committee, appointed after the meeting by President Asquith, include: L. S. Long, chairman; Mrs. Smoke, Mrs. C. T. Ziegler, Rev. Frantz and Mr. Blackburn.

The next board meeting will be held Friday, March 4.

Two new members of the board, elected in January at the annual meeting, attended their first meeting Friday evening. They were Dr. J. Albert Blackburn of McKnightstown, and Thomas Pyle of near Idaville. Other directors in attendance included Mrs. Kenneth Smoke, Mrs. Q. W. Hershey, the Rev. Rev. R. Frantz, L. S. Long and C. P. Keefer.

Dillsburg Scout Going To Jamboree

John Z. Zerby, Dillsburg, was one of three Boy Scouts from the York-Adams area selected to fill the area's quota for the eighth World Jamboree of the Boy Scouts to be held at Ontario, Canada, August 18 to 28.

The other two scouts from the Area who will be in the contingent of 1,500 scouts from the U. S. at the World Jamboree are Wayne Grove, York and Patrick Spangler, Hanover. All are 16 years of age. Zerby is a member of Squadron 38 of the Explorer Scouts, and assistant scoutmaster of Troop 38. He is an Eagle Scout with bronze palm.

Seattle Youth In Ski Jump Spotlight

LEAVENWORTH, Wash. (P) — A Seattle 17-year-old, Ragnar Ulland, grabbed the spotlight from the reigning stars in today's opening of the National Ski Jumping Championships after leaping 11 feet beyond the hill record yesterday in a final practice session.

Ulland's 296-foot jump made him the heavy favorite to succeed the injured Jerry Lewis of Duluth as national junior champion.

Lewis sprained his knee and ankle Thursday.

400 Persons At Birthday Ball:
About 400 persons attended the Birthday Ball at Hotel Gettysburg Tuesday evening, proceeds of which go to the Infantile Paralysis Fund. The ball was by far the most successful since its inception a number of years ago.

Mrs. Joseph E. Codori, county chairman, announced today that seven new sponsors were added to the list at the ball which brought the total number of sponsors to 180. Last year there were approximately 140 sponsors.

Burgess Asks For Voluntary Brownout Here: Burgess Fred G. Pfeiffer today appealed to all users of electricity to conserve as much electricity as possible until the government's "brownout" edict is lifted. The edict, designed to save 2,000,000 tons of coal annually, goes into effect at midnight.

The Burgess appealed especially to those consumers of electricity who have outside displays and signs to voluntarily follow the rules set up by the government in its effort to conserve fuel.

"I am confident that Gettysburg will willingly comply with the regulations. It is part of our contribution to the war effort. We will not have an enforcement agency to enforce the regulations here. We are depending upon the patriotism of our people to contribute their share of support to this new order."

Miss Grenoble Dies Suddenly:
Miss Mabel E. Grenoble, proprietor of the Grenoble Gift Shop, Chambersburg St., died suddenly Wednesday morning at the Warner Hospital of a pulmonary embolism. She had been admitted Saturday to the hospital for an operation for an intestinal obstruction. She was steadily improving from that operation when she was stricken.

Annie Danner Club Installs:
Mrs. Mildred E. Kitzmiller, new president of the Annie Danner Club, was formally inducted into office at the regular meeting at the YWCA Tuesday evening.

She succeeds Miss Beulah Furney, retiring president. Other officers inducted were Miss Verna Kitzmiller, vice president; Miss Oma Furney, secretary, and Miss Esther Geiselman, treasurer.

Cold Weather Records Set In January: January, one of the coldest months in years in Gettysburg weather annals, came to a typical close Wednesday night as icy winds from the west swept over snows that have covered the ground since a week before Christmas and held the mercury far below the freezing point.

During last month, which even the old-timers admit brought some "real old-fashioned winter weather" to this section, Gettysburg received 23 inches of snow, which, added to the seven inches measured in December, brought the winter's total snowfall to date to 30 inches.

The average daily maximum temperature recorded here by Dr. Henry Stewart, the local official observer, was 32.5 degrees while the average daily low was 17.9 degrees. The average temperature of 25.2 degrees was 4.7 degrees below the normal average for January.

Red Cross Promotes Francis C. Lindaman: Francis C. Lindaman of 16 E. King St., Littlestown, has been promoted to assistant director of Zone A, comprising the Hawaiian, Marshall and Gilbert Islands, for the American Red Cross. He has been connected with the Red Cross since February 1943.

Today's Talk

IT PAYS TO PRAY
It pays to pray because the best in a person is then exemplified. And the baser elements in his make-up are blotted out, at least temporarily. Prayer pushes aside all fear, too. Renewed confidence is created, for when we are in the presence of God our own nature becomes humble. We pray for courage, strength and to be guided aright.

Stevenson once wrote: "A generous prayer is never presented in vain; the petitioner is always, I believe, rewarded by some gracious visitation." Nothing but good can come from prayer, and the language of it doesn't matter. It's what comes out of the heart that is sure to render back to us a fruitful experience.

All great leaders in this world have been praying — men and women. Nothing so cleanses the heart as prayer. The effect is felt almost at once. I recall a very successful business man, in Chicago, whom I greatly admired because of his cheerful outlook and genuine Christian beliefs. The effect of his prayers was evident. He seemed to be good for all about him. I have thought of him time and again though he has probably gone to his reward long ago. To me he was an example of a man who never dies!

Most great military leaders have been praying men — Foch, Washington, MacArthur, Cromwell, Patton, and endless others. Lincoln put himself into the hands of God as few men ever have. He was rewarded with courage, patience, understanding and enriched faith.

It has been often said that more is wrought by prayer than anyone realizes. There are more men and women who habitually pray than any of us know about. The sincerest prayers are uttered in silence and alone. It is easy to pick out the praying people for they are the most confident, devout and cheerful!

CARE-TAKERS
The women want me trim and slick.
On me they cast an eye
And always they are very quick
To straighten out my tie.

At me they fingers fairly fly
My collar to adjust.
They know a careless man am I
Whose garments gather dust.

At me they sadly shake their heads
And to each other say:
"So worn and frayed that hat of Ed's,
It should be thrown away."

I'm sure the care they take of me
Some way I must have earned.
Or how I look they would not be
So very much concerned.

MENDES-FRANCE OUT OF OFFICE; FRANCE SEEKS NEXT LEADER

By PRESTON GROVER

PARIS (AP)—The French National Assembly threw Premier Pierre Mendes-France out of office today and began a search for a less stormy leader. But political observers predicted it would take a long time to find an acceptable successor.

Deputies toppled the fiery little Premier's Cabinet — France's 20th government since the Allies drove the Germans out of Paris in 1944 — by voting 319-273 against him on a confidence issue. It was one of the biggest tallies by which a Premier has been ousted since the war.

The ballot came after a three-day debate on the question of home rule for Tunisia and quick reforms for the rest of French North Africa. But personal animosities and traditional Assembly opposition to any strong leader played a big part in the ouster.

Defies Tradition
Even after his defeat was announced, Mendes-France defied Assembly tradition by taking the speaker's tribune to defend his policy. Most of his remarks were drowned out by deputies who shouted and banged their desks in protest against the speech.

Who might succeed him was hard to say. Coty announced he would start his consultations with parliamentary leaders this morning. But it was believed unlikely that they would come up quickly with a successor who could get the support of a majority in the Assembly.

Among those mentioned as possible choices were ex-Premier Antoine Pinay, who managed to stop France's spiraling inflation when he was in office two years ago, and Edgar Faure, also a former Premier. Faure was named foreign minister by Mendes-France only last week.

Pinay Conservative

Pinay is considered a conservative and is certain to draw the opposition of the Socialists, whose 105 members make them the largest single faction in the chamber. Some of Pinay's followers insist he will not accept a bid at this time, preferring to wait until another man has piloted the Paris accord on West German rearmament through the Senate.

The Assembly already has approved the pact admitting a re-armed West Germany into the North Atlantic Treaty Organization but a fight is expected when they come up for a ratification vote in the Senate late this month.

DU PONT ACTION BEING APPEALED

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government announced Friday it is appealing the decision of the Chicago federal court which dismissed an antitrust action against the E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co. and members of the Du Pont family.

Atty. Gen. Brownell said the case will be taken directly to the Supreme Court. Notice of the appeal was given to the Supreme Court this morning.

The action against the Du Ponts and their principal company, along with General Motors Corp. and the United States Rubber Co. was filed in the summer of 1949. It is generally regarded as one of the biggest antitrust actions ever initiated.

The defendant companies have assets totaling more than 5 billion dollars. Judge Walter J. LaBuy of Chicago terminated a long trial last Dec. 3 by ruling that the government had failed to prove conspiracy, monopolization or restraint of trade "or any reasonable probability of a restraint."

Quiz Associate

NEW YORK (AP)—Police have questioned another associate of the slain Serge Rubinstein but gave no indication of nearing a solution to the Jan. 27 murder of the millionaire financier and playboy.

Alex Freeman, a 26-year-old Manhattan dress manufacturer, talked with police two hours yesterday. Afterwards he told reporters he had tried to interest Rubinstein in the Bayfield Oil Co. of Toronto, Ont., shortly before he was murdered.

Police officials said they were still interested in all phases of Rubinstein's life, hoping to find enemies he might have made in business deals or through his interest in women or even while serving a prison sentence for draft dodging.

PUC Dismisses Water Rate Hike Protest

HARRISBURG (AP)—A protest filed by the borough of Factoryville against a proposed rate increase by the Norkomis Water Co. has been dismissed by the Public Utility Commission for what it called lack of prosecution.

The PUC said Thursday the borough failed to follow through with its complaint against the Wyoming County utility and was not represented at a public hearing in Tunkhannock last month.

The utility's $2,250 annual rate increase was made effective last October. The firm sought dismissal of the borough's objection.

YANK SAYS HE'S SATISFIED WITH LIFE IN RUSSIA

MOSCOW (AP)—The U.S. Embassy said Friday an American soldier who disappeared behind the Iron Curtain after a court-martial took away his sergeant's stripes "is satisfied with life in the Soviet Union."

Embassy officials confirmed a report by the Soviet News Agency Tass that they had talked with William Clayton Turner, 32, of Water Valley, Miss., a self-proclaimed political refugee.

Turner has been listed as absent without leave since Oct. 9 from his unit at Mainz, Germany. In a letter to Army officials Oct. 15, he asked "for the possibility to live and work in the Soviet Union."

Frank Siscoe, first secretary of the embassy here, said he and Capt. William Stroud, assistant military attaché, met Turner Jan. 31 at Kharkov, a major city in the Ukraine 400 miles south of Moscow. Embassy sources said Turner read the two diplomatic officials a prepared statement but refused to answer questions.

"I Have Everything"
Tass quoted Turner as saying: "I have come to the Soviet Union by my own will. I am quite satisfied with conditions of life here. ... Now I have everything I want."

Tass reported that Siscoe and Stroud talked with Turner at the Kharkov Automobile Institute and that he told them in his statement: "am studying at an institute and I have a chance of becoming an engineer."

The embassy said its men found Turner in "good condition."

A World War II veteran, Turner spent 18 months in a German prisoner of war camp but re-enlisted. His mother, Mrs. Sallie Winsette, 69, lives at Booneville, Miss.

In Hedelberg, Germany, U.S. Army headquarters said Turner first went AWOL in 1953 and was worked to private for it, but reduced his way back up to corporal before he disappeared in October.

SAY JAPAN IS FRIEND OF U.S.

TOKYO (AP)—Foreign Minister Mamoru Shigemitsu declared today Japan's friendship with the United States is "intimate and immutable ... the sheet-anchor of stability and progress in East Asia."

Emphasizing "our American friends may always count on us," Shigemitsu hinted that a rejuvenated Japan hopes again to become a major world nation—this time as a peacemaker between East and West.

The peg-legged veteran diplomat who signed Japan's World War II surrender addressed the American-Japan Society, often a sounding board of U.S.-Japan relations. He called on Red China to prove by its actions "her avowed intention of pursuing the policy of peaceful coexistence."

Shigemitsu expressed "grave concern" over the Formosa Strait crisis and hopes for a quick U.N. cease-fire. He implied Japan stands ready to help ease tension in the role of a "bridge" between East and West. But he told reporters afterward he had nothing specific in mind.

East Berlin

EAST BERLIN (AP)—For the first time in six years, the six children of Mrs. Kathryn Fidler were together last week at a reunion at her home near Victory schoolhouse. They were Carl, York; Wayne, stationed with the Air Force in Texas; Harold, on brief leave from the armed forces in Tripoli, where his wife remained during his visit; Mrs. Jean Fidler Mowery and Mrs. Gladys Fidler Smith, from the Dillsburg area, and Joyce, who resides with Carlisle relatives.

Also at the gathering were the husbands of the Fidler daughters: William Mowery, with their children Bonnie and William Jr., and George Smith and daughter, Nancy. Mrs. Wayne Fidler, a Japanese native, and their infant daughter, Judy Lee, have been spending the winter with Mrs. Kathryn Fidler.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Zeigler have received word from West York of the engagement of their granddaughter, Miss Joanne Marie Mummert, daughter of Paul L. and Miriam Zeigler Mummert, to Clair R. Spangler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clair R. Spangler Sr., York.

Mrs. S. Ellen King, 85, who broke a hip when she fell shortly after Christmas at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Allen Menges, will spend an indefinite time at a York Springs convalescent home following her recent discharge from the Warner Hospital, Gettysburg.

Mrs. Ray Peters entertained a group of neighboring young people at her home during the week to mark the 12th birthday of her daughter, Peggy Kelly.

Robert M. Zeigler, local barber, who returned last week from the Warner Hospital, continues to improve.

Gary Zeigler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Zeigler, a 1952 graduate of East Berlin High School, who has been working in York, volunteered for army service and left Tuesday with another local volunteer, Donald Hinkle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Hinkle. The young men will take their basic training at Ft. Jackson, S. C.

The Rev. Jeremiah McNamara, a Passionist Father from Baltimore, has announced the schedule of special services for the annual Forty Hours devotions beginning at 7 o'clock mass Sunday morning at the Paradise Agricultural School chapel, which are primarily for the boys living there. An invitation is extended to Paradise parishioners to attend. The solemn closing is set for Tuesday evening at the chapel with neighboring priests assisting.

Miss Ruth E. Brandt, daughter of Mrs. Verne Y. Brandt, is the new bookkeeper at the Penn Wood Heel Company. Her brother, Fred, has been appointed organist of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Hanover.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer S. Bloodworth have returned to Groton, Conn., after a brief stay at the home of her mother, Mrs. Paul P. Lerew Sr.

Michael B. Burgard, R. 3, spent Tuesday in Baltimore transacting business.

George Cromer, Hanover R. 5, spent an evening here during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. David S. Kime Sr., married during January in Carroll County, Md., are now residing at his Thomasville property. Mr. Kime formerly operated a grocery business here before the death of his first wife in 1953. The new Mrs. Kime, formerly Mrs. Helen Weichert, operated a restaurant just north of town for several years.

George L. Shetter, who had been very ill at the York Hospital, is now reported rapidly recovering.

Charles Eisenhart is spending some time at his home after his recent return from Alaska where he spent 18 months in the armed forces.

Dr. Robert Byerly of Elizabethtown College will teach "The Books of Acts" to the adults participating in the six-week Wednesday evening School of Christian Education beginning February 9 at 7:30 p.m. at Bermudian Church of the Brethren. A children's class will be taught by Mrs. Mildred Mohler.

RED CHINA IS REPEATING ITS SHOW OF 1950

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—Red China is going through the same performance it put on in 1950, with variations. Its refusal Thursday to discuss a Formosa cease-fire in the United Nations doesn't necessarily mean it won't be glad to talk about Formosa, one way or another, outside the U.N.

It might be glad to, perhaps at a place like Geneva, completely outside the U.N. It could make propaganda, might split the allies a bit, and might make a good deal for itself, just as it did the last time it went to Geneva, where the West gave up half of Viet Nam in Indochina.

The Red Chinese made their first and only appearance in the U.N. in 1950. Then they demanded a U.N. seat as the price of discussing a Korean cease-fire. They got nowhere. Four years later they were willing to discuss Korean and Indochinese problems in Geneva. Nothing happened on Korea. They got a chunk of Indochina.

Seat Demanded
Now they not only demand a U.N. seat but refuse to discuss a Formosa cease-fire. They want to discuss, they say, only American "aggression" against Formosa. This is the history repeating itself.

In the summer of 1950 Chou En-lai, Chinese foreign minister, accused the United States of aggression against Formosa when, after the start of the Korean War, President Truman threw the 7th Fleet around the island where Chiang Kai-shek had taken refuge. Now Chou once again charges the United States with aggression against Formosa, which he claims belongs to Red China.

In 1950 Russia backed up the Chinese Communists by accusing this country of aggression in Formosa. Now again Russia makes the same charge. The U.N. in 1950 invited Chou to send a delegation to New York to discuss the "aggression" charge Chou refused at first, changed his mind 10 days later.

Penn State Grad
Majoring in dairy science, he graduated from the Pennsylvania State University in 1948. At the university he participated in many extra-curricular activities and served a term as president of the Dairy Science Club.

He was also a member of the Block and Bridge Club, Agricultural Student Council, 4-H Club, Little International Dairy Exposition, Delta Theta Sigma fraternity and was listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Following graduation he accepted a position as assistant manager of the Western Pennsylvania Breeding Cooperative.

To Live In Gettysburg
Early in 1952 he went to Puerto Rico upon invitation of the Puerto Rican Department of Agriculture to direct a program of dairy cattle improvement. The original dairy herds were brought to Puerto Rico, he said today, by the Spanish. The cattle were hardy and well adapted to the hot climate but gave relatively little milk. Holsteins were imported in

"TV For Hospitals" Drive Is Booming

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Telecast pleas for funds to be used in purchasing TV sets for hospitals are getting results.

Any individual or group donating $100 is allowed to name the hospital in which the set is installed. Smaller donations are lumped together and hospitals chosen by the station.

Response has been overwhelming, sponsors report, with $800 subscribed in a single day from Chanute Air Force Base.

"The boys at Chanute are trying to see which squadron can donate the most," they say.

Sixty sets have been installed in 30 towns in central Illinois and western Indiana. They are purchased for $100 each through cooperation of wholesalers and dealers.

New Oxford

NEW OXFORD—Fred Gable, tenor, gave a group of vocal selections Tuesday evening at the regular meeting of Hanover's Beethoven Club with an accompaniment by Mrs. Robert Brothers.

Miss Jane Bevenour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence C. Bevenour, was hostess during the week at a business meeting at her home for the Youth Club of Immaculate Conception Catholic Church.

Mrs. Charles Miller Jr., near East Berlin, has been very ill at the Hanover Hospital.

Visitors to this area during the week were Allen Rank and son, Wyomissing. Mr. Rank is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Wilton R. Miller.

Large numbers in recent years to increase the output of milk, but are affected by the climate. The work with which Naugle was associated was connected with a breeding and pasture program to provide cattle that will be adapted to the climate and still give large quantities of milk.

In 1954 Naugle returned to Pennsylvania to prepare for an assignment as a 1954 International Farm Youth Exchange delegate to Switzerland. He recently returned from the six months visit with the Swiss farmers and a study of agriculture there. Among facts that he learned, Naugle said, was "that Brown Swiss are not the leading variety in Switzerland."

Mr. Naugle's permanent address will be in Gettysburg.

MARQUETTE IS AFTER 15TH WIN IN TILT TONIGHT

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press
Marquette tries to stretch its winning streak, tops in major college basketball this season, to 15 games tonight with San Francisco and Memphis State ready to take over if the Warriors stumble.

Both the Dons, ranked No. 2 in The Associated Press poll, and Memphis State collected their 13th straight triumphs last night. And unless an upset is brewing, they should pack away No. 14 tonight.

San Francisco smashed Loyola of Los Angeles 65-55 while Memphis State pasted Mississippi State 94-68.

Holy Cross Stopped
Marquette, which like the Dons has lost only once in its opener against Michigan State, is at Drake tonight. San Francisco meets St. Mary's at San Francisco's Cow Palace in what figures to be a repeat of an earlier 51-37 victory over the Gaels. Memphis State is at Florida State.

Both San Francisco and Memphis State were sure bets that paid off last night. But some others didn't.

Syracuse, hobbling along on a 4-9 record, smacked Holy Cross, riding a 3-game winning string and ranked 14th, 74-70. Duke surprised North Carolina out of the Atlantic Coast conference last night, 68-64. And Rhode Island State upset Colgate 87-85 in overtime.

Clemson Bombed
In another ACC game, Wake Forest bombed Clemson 120-65. And Richmond, the Southern conference leader, stood off a second half rally to hand Virginia Tech its 13th straight defeat 70-65.

UCLA, ranked No. 8, staid tied with Stanford for the lead in the Pacific Coast conference's southern division by defeating California 83-64, while Stanford knocked off Southern California 92-78. In the northern division, Oregon State, ranked No. 19, won its ninth straight in the league 59-52 over Idaho and Washington virtually eliminated Oregon State from the race 54-52 in overtime.

In other games, Wyoming hit 54 percent of its shots in the first half to build up a 20-point lead that proved too much for Oklahoma City as the Cowboys won 61-56. Cincinnati won its eighth straight 83-63 over Siena, and West Texas State dropped Arizona State (Tempe) 97-72 in the Border conference.

WILDCAT OIL WELL TO AID RICE SPORTS

HOUSTON, Tex. (P)—Rice Institute's athletic department soon may be receiving income from what is believed to be a multi-million-dollar oil field discovery.

A Limestone County wildcat was completed last week with a daily flow of 964 barrels of oil. Other wells are to be drilled.

A group of Houston oilmen acquired leases on the property seven years ago. Three 32nds of any income was earmarked for special Rice Institute projects, with the athletic department to receive first consideration.

In New Pay Zone
Since then the Southwest Conference school has constructed a 70,000-seat stadium and a 6,400-seat field house but the Board of Trustees is expected to allow the oilmen's wishes in apportioning the new income.

Long-range income from an oil discovery is very unpredictable but Jack Frazier, who conceived the idea for aiding Rice, believes there is much room for optimism.

The discovery is in a new pay zone some 5,500 feet below the old Mexia oil field.

"The original Mexia field produced over 100 million barrels," Frazier said. "I think the new one should produce very well."

Announce Substitute For Giardello Fight

BALTIMORE (P)—Wednesday night television fight fans will view a substitute bout next week that could easily turn out to be better than the original.

High promoter Benny Trottia yesterday arranged a bout between heavyweights Bob Baker of Pittsburgh and Willie James to replace the scheduled 10-rounder matching Joey Giardello and Al Andrews.

Trottia said he had told Andrews fell on the ice and injured his back.

Adams County Boys' League

Unbeaten Boiling Springs stepped a notch closer to its third straight Adams County Basketball League title by edging the Biglerville High dribblers 39-31 in a hard fought game at Biglerville Friday evening. It was the 10th straight for the Bubblers and protected their two-game margin over second-place New Oxford.

Dick Allison's Cannors took a 7-6 lead in the first period but fell behind 18-16 at half time. Eddie Dasher, the top point man in the league, was confined to limited duty in the second half for five tallies. John Stover sparked the winners with 11 points while Nevin Frantz accounted for 13 for the Cannors.

East Berlin assumed a 15-6 lead in the first quarter and went on to win an easy 60-34 victory at Fairfield. The triumph kept the Indians in the league race, three games back of the leaders.

Twelve East Berlin lads scored with Lanny Oberlander and Nelson Groupie rimming 12 and 10. Eddie Spence was the big gun for Fairfield with 15.

Colonials Keep Pace
Second-place New Oxford romped to a 54-31 decision at Newville to keep alive its hopes to oust Boiling Springs. Russ Schleitner's squad remained two games off the pace.

The Colonials were never in danger, taking a big 17-5 edge in the first period. Bill Little swished 16 points for the winner while Martin sank 10 for Newville.

Littleville rolled up a 22-13 advantage in the first period via a number of long tosses by Tom Gouker and upset York Springs 65-51 on the Littleville floor. The Thunderbolts led all the way although the scrappy Springers made mild threats in the last period.

Stan Mummert, Jay Showmaker and Gouker provided the bulk of the Littleville attack while Charles Koons and Ronnie Weigle led York Springs.

SANTÉE GOING FOR NEW MARK
NEW YORK (P)—The "old" world indoor record for the mile—one week old, that is—of 4:03.8 could vanish under Wes Santée's flying heels tonight in the 48th edition of the Millrose Games in Madison Square Garden.

The 22-year-old Kansas cowboy, who set the mark in Boston just a week ago, is going to try to lower it, and he'll have plenty of assistance. He doesn't like to set the pace himself, so that little task will be assigned to Dick Olsen of Northeastern and Fred Dwyer of the Armed Forces team in the Wanamaker Mile.

In addition to Olsen and Dwyer, Bob McMillen of the Armed Forces, Billy Tidwell of Emporia (Kas) State Teachers and Gunnar Nielsen, the Danish pressman who whipped Santée in Washington two weeks ago, will toe the mark.

There are 500 athletes competing in 24 assorted events. Twenty-three Olympians from a half-dozen countries are on the scene and a capacity crowd of some 16,000 is expected.

Palmer Leading In Phoenix Open
PHOENIX, Ariz. (P)—If Johnny Palmer is a true prophet he can win the Phoenix Open Golf Tournament by finishing the final two rounds in even par as he leads at the midway point with his five-under 135.

The veteran from Charlotte, N. C. said as the event started that a 275 probably would win the $15,000 event over the Arizona Country Club course.

Those who doubt his accuracy as a seer think it will take more sub-par shooting today and tomorrow to stand off the challenges of Gene Littler, in second place with 136, Arnold Palmer at 137 and a trio of top winners at 138.

WASHINGTON 5 OPPOSES MOUNT AT EMMITSBURG
The Mount Saint Mary's College cagers return to action following a two-week examination lay-off on Monday against Washington College at Memorial Gymnasium, Emmitsburg. Thursday the Mountaineers face Western Maryland at home and on Saturday tap off against Baltimore University in Baltimore.

The Washington College game pits the Mason-Dixon Conference's top scorer percentage-wise, Jack Bergen, with a 26.1 average against Mountaineer ace Jack Sullivan who leads all Maryland scorers in total points with 403 for a 25.2 average.

To date the Mountaineers have won 13 and lost three for their best record in over a decade. The Mountaineers have an 8-1 record in conference play, good enough for second place behind undefeated Loyola.

Two Big Races At Santa Anita Today
ARCADIA, Calif. (P)—Two stakes races, the $57,000 Santa Margarita Handicap for mares and fillies and the $29,600 San Felipe handicap for 3-year-olds, lured thousands to Santa Anita Park today.

The San Felipe, at a mile and one-sixteenth for a net purse of $18,050 to the winner, drew 13 entries in a test of talent looking toward the $100,000 Santa Anita Derby Feb. 19.

Trentonian, Swaps and Bequeath appeared to be the pre-race favorites.

Miz Clementine figured to be the favorite in the Santa Margarita despite the tough race last week and her high weight of 130 pounds.

She spotted such rivals as Blue Butterfly and Mab's Choice nine or more pounds in the mile and one-eighth race.

The six special events are the 60 and 100 meter dashes, the 80 yard low hurdles, the high jump, the discus and the javelin throw.

Declares Automobiles Have Many Fire Hazards Despite Wide Belief To Contrary

Accident figures seem to indicate that too many automobiles have more buttons than their drivers.

Fire Still Car Hazard

Accelerating the fire hazard in motoring is the belief among too many motorists that cars are no longer subject to this danger. Add to this the higher speeds at which cars travel and the greater distances they may be from fire fighting equipment, and the situation definitely calls for special care.

With the battery under the hood a short circuit in the main cable to the starting motor may set off a blaze quickly fed on oily parts and fanned by air current through the radiator core. There are today numerous auxiliary lights with just that many more chances for shorts. Upholstery fires are common.

Never assume that because a light goes out the bulb merely needs replacing. There may be a short circuit. Have all lights and the engine off when gasoline is being added to the tank. Don't operate the car without the air cleaner as this serves as a backfire trip too. Keep the fuel system free of leakage. And carry a good fire extinguisher.

Clue To A Mix-up

Recently I have run across a number of cases wherein car lights such as directional signals, backing lights, flashers and the like have become mixed up. In every instance I have discovered that this followed installation of some extra piece of electrical equipment, proving that the disturbance was the result of some error in altering the wiring. It calls for a careful check by an experienced mechanic.

That Manifold Valve

Although it has been kicking around these many years the manifold heat control valve continues to be one of the most ignored and often hopelessly neglected units on the car. Its function is to provide a simple means of pre-heating fuel during the engine's warm-up period. It is something of a "stove" in that it deflects exhaust manifold gases around a chamber through which the intake gases pass. There is no actual convection. Naturally if the valve fails to open it doesn't deflect exhaust gases and the engine requiring more choking and giving poorer performance. And if the valve stays in the open position all the time the mixture will be overheated when the engine warms up.

Main trouble with the manifold valve is that it becomes "frozen." That is, rusted. Prevent this by applying some penetrating oil from time to time.

Mechanic Joe Speaking:

"I don't know why it is that so many people seem to assume a car has to be in motion when its behavior is being studied. You can find out a lot about a car while it's idle."

"There's the business of checking anti-freeze loss, for instance. Watch the level of coolant while the car is standing a day in the garage or even over night. But if the latter be sure to let the engine cool off fully before measuring the level of the coolant below the radiator cap. If there are no visible signs of leakage, and if the level drops, you may find that coolant is getting into the crankcase past a leaky head gasket. If so, the level of oil in the crankcase should rise."

Note On Right Turning

There still are many drivers who, when about to make a right hand turn, will swing out toward the middle of the street in order to avoid striking the curb. This, of course, is always confusing to those following because it looks like the car is about to turn left even if the directional signals are set for a right turn. The proper caper in turning is to stay in the right hand lane and to move toward the center of the intersecting street so

Scouts Observe 45th Birthday

Boy Scout Week, Feb. 6 to 12, marking the 45th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America, will be observed throughout the nation by more than 3,600,000 boys and adult leaders. Since 1910, more than 22,750,000 boys and men have been members.

"Building for a Better Tomorrow" is the birthday theme. Members of 95,000 units, through demonstrations and exhibits, will dramatize the purpose of Scouting and the rich heritage it has in this country.

Boy Scout Week marks the completion of the first year of the National Conservation Good Turn the organization has undertaken at the request of President Eisenhower. Units which have qualified will receive National Conservation Good Turn Certificates of Merit awarded jointly by the Secretaries of Agriculture and the Interior, Ezra Taft Benson and Douglas McKay, respectively.

As a clear the curb. Shorter wheel-base cars go around a right hand turn more easily. A little practice with the car will enable any driver to make the turn more smoothly and without that misleading swing to the left.

Two For Wintertime

Drivers of cars with fluid couplings instead of mechanical clutches find it easier to get away on glare ice, provided they take it easy, but the driver who still shifts gears should remember to try starting in high or use a lower gear with the hand brake lightly applied to help reduce power to the driving wheels.

Few motorists realize that their difficulty trying to get out of deep snow is due to not clearing away some of the snow in front of the front wheels.

Overheating At Zero

Winter overheating, seemingly a contradiction, can be a serious stumbling block to successful cold weather use of the car. It can happen even at below zero temperatures even though the trouble is most likely to develop on those occasional winter days when the weather turns unexpectedly mild.

If there isn't sufficient anti-freeze a cold night may solidify coolant in portions of the system, causing the remainder to overheat shortly after the engine has started. More common these days is overheating from general inefficiency of the engine where the owner has had a higher degree thermostat installed. Sometimes owners use cardboard between the grille and the radiator core to boost the car heater's output in very cold weather, and then forget to remove this when outside temperature rises. Often the engine overheats in winter because it is working hard to pull the car through snow. Automatic transmissions are likely to aggravate this because of the slippage of the fluid coupling.

Moving Toward Simplicity

In many cases heating in winter is merely overlooking the need for checking the coolant supply. There may be slow but steady losses through leakage, and frequently a lot of coolant will syphon out the overflow pipe if there is too much coolant in the radiator to start with

Room must be allowed for expansion.

Now that one of the leading spark plug companies has come out with a model that requires no gasket observers believe that we will witness a lot of changes leading toward simplicity. Some of the better engines have all but eliminated cylinder head gaskets. It is a matter of better machining, better materials and new design which make for closer fitting. We have come a long way since your favorite mechanic used to put a thick gasket over the engine block and then shellac it heavily before bolting down the head. Today it isn't necessary even to use shellac when fitting new radiator housing. With smooth surfaces, closer fit and hose clamps that press evenly all the way around leakage is rare at such points after a hose replacement.

In The Motor Mail

Q. The engine of my car occasionally takes to rocking in its mountings with much roughness and galloping. Timing has been carefully checked. Spark plugs have been replaced. What now? H. H. T.

A. Better check the valves. This looks like stickage to me.

Q. My car has a peculiar habit of acting as if hit in the rear when I am trying to get started. It doesn't always happen. J. L. A.

A. This must be due to clutch slippage. When the clutch takes hold the car goes ahead with a jerk.

Q. What causes piston slap? What damage does it cause? N. N. K.

A. Slap can be caused by a worn cylinder or worn rings or an out-of-line connecting rod. The piston is loose and thus slaps against its cylinder. If continued, it will usually get worse to a point where the cylinder will be damaged. This would require reboring or re-sleeving.

Q. The distributor on my car is right where it seems to pick up a lot of oil fumes, which, combined with road dust, keeps it a bit on the messy side. This, in turn, provides a depository for moisture and causes misfiring. Would it be all right to shield the unit with a metal plate? H. N. B.

A. I can see no disadvantage here, provided the shielding doesn't interfere with proper fan cooling of the motor.

Q. My car is a used job which was equipped with a hand operated choke to replace the original automatic control. I have noticed that in climbing steep hills I get more power if I pull the choke button out part way. Is this normal, and is it the right thing to do. Wm. L. A.

A. Such partial choking enriches the mixture. The indications are that this motor is being fed a too lean mixture and should have a carburetor recheck. Normally it should not be necessary to choke for additional power, and such choking would tend to increase carbon deposits.

Q. Whenever I go into a corner for a slow turn in high gear the engine tends to buck. I have been told that the mixture is way off base. T. H. F.

A. More likely there is a spark plug with incorrect gap, a sticky valve or too advanced timing.

Q. I have been having quite a time getting the engine started on cold mornings. It seems as if I can count the revolutions as the starter grinds away. Because I use the car for long trips daily the battery keeps up. J. L. Jr.

A. This certainly means too slow cranking speed, but the trouble probably is that the oil is too heavy. This engine is modern enough to be using special high detergency oils which are designed to operate well over a wide range in temperatures.

Mr. Russell will answer questions regarding the safe care and operation of your car. Just address him at 254 Fern St., West Hartford 7, Conn., and enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope for a personal reply. There is no charge.

PLEAD INNOCENT OF BLUDGEONING OF REMINGTON

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Three fellow convicts pleaded innocent at their arraignment in U. S. District Court to a charge of murder in the prison bludgeoning of former government economist William W. Remington.

Judge Frederick V. Follmer heard the trio's plea Thursday after he denied defense motions to dismiss the indictments against them.

Charged in the November slaying of the 37-year-old Remington are: Robert Carl Parker, 21, Washington, D. C.; Lewis Cagle, 17, Chattanooga, Tenn.; and George Junior McCoy, 34, Grundy, Va.

Judge Follmer set no date for trial and said:

No Rushing

"There won't be any rushing about it. On the other hand it is the type of case that should not be long dragged out. However, I will allow sufficient time for the attorneys to arrange and prepare for trial."

Remington was found severely beaten near his Lewisburg federal penitentiary cell last Nov. 24. He died two days later. He was serving a term for perjury.

At yesterday's hearing here and Jan. 24 in Scranton, defense attorneys sought dismissal of the indictments against the convicts on grounds the grand jury indicted the trio in Scranton whereas the crime was committed 100 miles away in Union County where the penitentiary is located.

"Under Durees"

Roger Mattes, Parker's attorney, submitted an affidavit by his client yesterday saying that a statement by Parker admitted a part in the slaying was taken "under durees." However, the attorney could not say who ordered the "coercion and durees."

Charles R. Bidelspacher Jr., Williamsport, McCoy's attorney, also sought to enter a second innocent plea for his client "by reason of insanity" but the court limited the plea to one of general innocence.

Convict Woman Of Killing Her Baby

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Judge Joseph B. Wissler Thursday found Miss Helen M. Scheid, 20, guilty of second degree murder in the death of her newborn daughter and sentenced her to an indeterminate term at the state Industrial Home for Women in Muncy.

Miss Scheid had pleaded guilty previously to general murder charges in the suffocation-death of the infant last Nov. 5.

Wissler issued his verdict after hearing testimony to determine the degree of guilt.

Says He Used False Documents

NEW YORK (AP)—Former Communist Harvey Matusow says he used "false documents and materials" from the office of Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) as campaign material against several western Democratic senators in 1952.

McCarthy was unavailable for comment.

Matusow, who swore last Monday he gave false testimony that helped convict 13 Communist leaders of conspiracy, made the statement at a news conference Thursday.

At the same time he denied the Communist party had "planted" him as a witness to give fake testimony so cases of Congressional investigating committees would be discredited.

Rep. Francis E. Walter (D-Pa.), chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee, said in Washington Thursday "there's no question" Matusow was a Communist "plant."

Seek Origin Of Disastrous Fire

SHAMOKIN, Pa. (AP)—Officials Friday probed ruins of 16 houses in this Northumberland County community to find the origin of a fire which left 73 persons homeless and caused an estimated $20,000 damage.

The fire broke out Thursday on the second floor of a two-story dwelling in the home of Mrs. Betty Callemann and her five children. It quickly spread to 15 other connected houses in the block.

Harvey Minnier, 65, suffered a stroke as the flames neared his home and was taken to Shamokin State Hospital.

BRITAIN SEEKS NEW EFFORTS TO EASE WAR ISSUE

By SEYMOUR TOPPING

LONDON (AP)—The British government has written off all immediate chances of a United Nations cease-fire in the Formosa Strait.

Instead, it turned to Asian leaders of the worldwide British Commonwealth, meeting here, in the hope of finding a solution to the explosive situation and averting a major shooting war in the Far East.

Shocked and disappointed by Red China's refusal to come to the U.N. and talk things over, Prime Minister Churchill's government saw the best prospect of peace in secret, behind-the-scenes diplomacy instead of public negotiation through the U.N.

The British hopes rested mainly on India's neutralist Prime Minister Nehru, who has been in constant touch with the Chinese Communist government and has been a chief negotiator between East and West in the past.

The Commonwealth prime ministers began a series of urgent consultations this morning on new ways to bring a quick end to the shooting between Red China and Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalists.

Responsible informants said Nehru, Churchill and the other Commonwealth premiers are studying these alternate cease-fire moves.

Tom Dowd, road secretary for the Boston Red Sox, is an official in the National Football League during the fall and winter months.

Man's Death In Baltimore Hotel Loaded With Mystery

BALTIMORE (AP)—A man died in bed without a sign of violence. It was as simple as that, but the case plaguing police here and in New York is loaded with mystery.

The body was found sprawled across the bed in a room at the Lord Baltimore Hotel. The clues:

The room was registered to a Dr. Edward James Phillips, of New York City. But New York medical directories list no Dr. Edward James Phillips.

Loaded With Mystery

A New York acquaintance who had known Phillips for two years said he was a brigadier general in the Army Medical Corps stationed at Ft. Jay in New York harbor. But no such officer is listed or known by officials at either Ft. Jay or the Pentagon in Washington.

A dinner honoring Phillips reportedly was to have been given at the Waldorf-Astoria last night. But the banquet department at the Waldorf said there were no reservations for such a party.

Dr. Russell H. Fisher, state medical examiner, said a preliminary autopsy showed the man's death was due to a "potent-acting group of barbiturates" or a simple overdose of phenobarbital. But police found no indications that the man had been taking phenobarbital—no pills or pill bottles.

The Final Touch

And here's the "piece de resistance" for the amateur criminologist: Phillips' wife said in New York he called her from his hotel room at 12:42 a.m. Wednesday—17 minutes after a telegram announcing his death was phoned from a pay station in the lobby.

The telegram was sent to Dr. Erna Gutenstein, a New York dentist, who told police Phillips was a general. She said she had been invited to the testimonial dinner, but had received a telegram saying:

"It is with sincere regret that I must inform you that dinner will be canceled Wednesday evening due to sudden death of Edward James Phillips from heart attack in Baltimore." The wire was signed "Robert Ritter."

Police found from Western Union records that the telegram had been sent from the pay station at 12:25 a.m. Wednesday. The body was discovered about 5 p.m. Wednesday after Dr. Gutenstein called the hotel to ask details.

Dr. Gutenstein said it was her understanding a retired Army colonel by the name of Robert Ritter was to have been guest speaker at the dinner.

Detective Lt. George Klemmick quoted Mrs. Phillips that her husband called her at 12:42 a.m. to say the dinner might have to be canceled. She said he told her the guest speaker had died.

Stewart And Co. To Open Branch Store

Stewart and Co., the Baltimore department store, has announced that it will open a branch store in north Baltimore February 8. The new branch will be located on the York-Baltimore Road, at the northern city line.

The management of Stewart's calls the new branch "the East's most modern department store and shopping center." It is built on two levels, with surrounding parking lots. It will contain complete men's, women's, children's apparel and accessory departments. The entire second level will be devoted to home furnishings, including furniture and floor coverings.

According to L. P. Seller, president of Stewart's, the location was chosen because of its availability to the rapidly-growing northern suburbs of the city and its easy accessibility from east and west. Residents of the Gettysburg area may reach the store by taking the Baltimore Pike through Littlestown, Westminster, Reisterstown and Pikesville, into the city. Then they should turn left on Bevedere Ave., a few miles past Pikesville, and follow it into York Road, and turn left again.

In a healthy bird, each feather which falls from the body is replaced by a new one.

Available statistics indicate that boys have more colds than girls, but women have more than men.

U.N. DIPLOMATS CONSULTING ON NEXT STEP IN FORMOSA CASE

By MAX HARRELSON

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—U.N. diplomats consulted Friday on the next step in their quest for peace in the Formosa Strait. They generally agreed the U.N. can do little in the face of Red China's boycott of the proposed Security Council cease-fire talks.

Three courses appeared to be open:

1. Make another effort to persuade Premier Chou En-lai to send a representative here.
2. Debate the Formosa problem without the participation of the Chinese Communists.
3. Try to arrange a conference outside the U.N. — like the Far Eastern parley in Geneva last spring—at which the whole China problem could be discussed. This appeared the likeliest prospect.

See No Compromise

In view of Chou's declaration that he would not send a representative to the U.N. unless the Security Council ousts Nationalist China and gives Peking that seat, many delegates saw no chance for compromise here. The council was expected to stick to its previous firm refusal to replace Chiang Kai-shek's representative. Chou also was not expected to back down.

The Red Chinese Premier rejected the council's invitation Thurs-

"APE" Says "Smust" Is Now Enveloping Los Angeles Area

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Residents of the Los Angeles area haven't detected much difference between old-fashioned smog and smust.

Smust, says the Air Pollution Control District, is a new meteorological phenomenon that consists of dust blown into the area by high winds and smoke from fruit orchard heaters. Smog consists only of smoke and fog.

A wag has come up with some other combinations, viz:

Rail—a combination of rain and hail.

Sheet, snow and sleet.

Smoud, smoke and overhanging clouds.

Smaze, smoke and haze.

Ape, abbreviation for air pollution expert.

day in a long cable to U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld. He said that even if the council ousted Nationalist China, he would send a representative only to discuss the Soviet charges of U.S. aggression against China, not to debate New Zealand's "cease-fire" proposal for which he was invited.

The council undoubtedly will meet within a few days—possibly Monday—to consider its future course. It already has before it a two-point agenda consisting of both the New Zealand proposal and the Soviet charges.

The grooves into which the lead of leadpencils is fitted to the wooden case must be made within .0005 of an inch accuracy.
